

ACTRESS SHOT, CLEARS HUSBAND

As Death Nears Eva Cohn Says that She Inflicted Fatal Wound —This Clears You," Tells Theatrical Agent.

With a bullet wound under her heart and dying, Mrs. Eva Cohn, a young wife, whose home is at No. 46 Third avenue, was asked by Policeman McGowan, of the Fifth street precinct:

"Who shot you?" she whispered.
Then turning to her husband she added:
"Now, I guess this clears you." Mrs. Cohn was shot at her home early today. Her husband, Wilhelm, who is a theatrical agent, and she have been quarrelling for several days.
It is asserted, and the husband says, that she was insanely jealous, and for no reason whatever. Yesterday there were several quarrels between the couple, and last night Cohn and a friend, Tony Mack, went to a second avenue cafe and played cards until long after midnight. When Cohn returned home he found his wife fully dressed and waiting for him?

"Now, I know that you are not faithful," she burst out. "You have stayed out later than you should have done."

There were high words between the couple and then it is asserted by the husband that his wife walked to the further side of the room and seizing a revolver pressed it to her left side.
Advancing toward him she cried:

"After this you can stay out as late as you choose. Instantly she fired, falling with the bullet just under her heart.
She was hurried to Bellevue Hospital, where it is said that she will die.
Mrs. Cohn formerly lived in Canada.
She was an actress, and after the death of her first husband, who was named Brown, she met Cohn and fell in love with him. Twice before she has attempted to end her life, her husband says. Once she took poison in an Indiana town, and again she tried to shoot herself in her home at No. 24 East Fourteenth street. She failed to hurt herself the last time, because of a corner stove that caused the bullet to glance off.

MOTHER ASKS THAT POLICE FIND GIRL

Parents Reported that 405 Is Also Missing—Fear that She Has Been Lured Away.

A general police alarm was sent out to-day by Doris Harrison, fourteen years old, of No. 133 Summerfield street, Evergreen, L. I. The police of Queens notified the New York department, saying the girl's disappearance had been reported by her mother. The report also states that the girl was dressed in clothing of the latest cut, and before leaving her home took $5 belonging to her mother.

The girl is described as 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighing 110 pounds and of good figure. When she left home she wore a long blue coat over a white waist and blue skirt. Her hair was of the Martha Washington type.
She is described as very pretty. Her hair is light blond and her eyes gray.
Some alarm is felt that she may have been lured away.

CUPID LURKED IN THIS MISSOURI EGG.

"Miss Edith Davis, Chalk Level, Mo.," pencilled on an egg that found its way eventually into the hands of John Mahar, a grocery clerk, of Paterson, N. J., in a result in the marriage of Mr. Mahar and Miss Davis.
Mahar unpacked the egg in a shipment three years ago. He wrote to the fair Miss Davis, and they corresponded for a while. Then they sent photographs, told their real ages, and became engaged.

Miss Davis and her father are coming to New York. The man from Missouri will look over the young man, and the wedding will be in Paterson.
Davis, of Chalk Level, is said to be wealthy according to Missouri standards.

Kelly's Skull Was Fractured by Steamship on Track's Side.

John Kelly, thirty-three years old, of No. 904 Third avenue, was instantly killed at One Hundred and Fifty-sixth street and Sheridan avenue to-day while riding on the rear step of a New York Central car. Kelly leaned forward to see ahead and his head struck an upright steamship alongside the track. His skull was fractured and he was injured internally so that he died within a few minutes.

SHOT GIRL WHO REJECTED HIM

Called When Accepted Suitor Was Due, and After Wounding Former Sweetheart George Frehart Killed Himself.

Miss Annie Pophusen, who was shot by her rejected lover, George Frehart, of No. 24 West Eighth street, as she came down the stairs of her home at No. 211 East Fifty-first street, to answer his call, may recover from her wounds. The physicians at the Flower hospital, where the young woman lies, say she has a fighting chance for life.
Frehart, who turned the pistol upon himself, is dead, his body now lying in the Morgue.

Miss Pophusen is twenty-seven years old, and lives with her aunt on the top floor of the Fifty-first street house.
Frehart was the same age. The pair met a couple of years ago in Jersey City, where the girl lived at that time.
Attentions Annoyed Girl.

Mrs. Frederick Pophusen, the girl's aunt, said to an Evening World reporter to-day: "Frehart bothered my niece for a long time. He met her a year and a half ago, when she was calling on his sister at Bayonne. His visits to my niece after that became so frequent and his importunities so pronounced that she was forced to leave Jersey City, where she lived and come to my house. She never cared for him and tried her best to make him understand it.

He raved his unwelcome attentions after she came to New York and insisted upon her accepting two rings from him, one of which he told her was their engagement ring. He never gave her money, and all that he spent on her was for theatre tickets once in a while. The rings she insisted upon his taking back.
"Some time ago Frehart employed a detective to shadow her. When she left the store where she worked the detective followed her to her home. He made her believe he was there to follow her.
He made life altogether miserable for the poor girl."

Mrs. Frehart, when seen by an Evening World reporter at her home in Bayonne to-day, said: "My son was arrested in love with her. They were engaged, too, and she was to come to Bayonne to make arrangements for the wedding. They were to live in New York. A few days ago, as she did not come, the boy grew despondent. He left Bayonne and went to New York. That was the last I saw of him."

CURES WITHOUT STOMACH DOSING

Hymel Cures Catarrh by Simple Breathing. Hegeman & Co. Refund Money if It Fails to Cure.

A long stride toward solving the mystery of curing catarrh was taken with the discovery of Hymel. In fact, the percentage of cures by this treatment proves it equal to the most famous of the world.
The folly of taking medicine into the stomach to cure catarrh of the nose, throat and lungs has been realized by physicians, but not until Hymel was known had they a practical method that would obviate stomach dosing.

A complete Hymel outfit costs but $1, and consists of a neat pocket inhaler that can be used anywhere without attracting attention, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hymel. Extra bottles of Hymel cost but 50c.
Breathing Hymel through the inhaler, every particle of air that enters the nose, throat and lungs is charged with a healing balm that soothes and allays all irritation, kills the catarrhal germs and enriches the blood with additional oxygen.
Hegeman & Co. have so much faith in the power of Hymel to cure catarrh that they are selling it under their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give complete relief.
Hegeman & Co., The Corporation, 200 Broadway and all branches. Mail orders

TRIED TO SLAY WIFE WITH RAZOR

Ball, Without Warning, Attacked Woman and Nearly Severed Her Right Hand as She Defended Her Life.

In a sudden frenzy, Philip Ball, a lithographer, thirty-three years old, of No. 523 East Thirtieth street, tried to kill his wife to-day with a razor, almost severing her right hand at the wrist. Then as she ran screaming from their apartment he cut his throat in three places and turned on the gas.

Both were taken to Bellevue Hospital in the same ambulance. The man will die.

Mrs. Ball had been out to market and when she returned to the flat, which is on the top floor, she found her young husband just getting out of bed. She did not pay any attention to him. As she turned her back and started to walk into the kitchen he sprang upon her.
Policeman Speeden, of the Fifth street station, was passing as the woman ran out and fell fainting. He carried her into a saloon and made a tourniquet to stanch the flow of blood and then called an ambulance.
Before Dr. Pichner arrived with the ambulance Speeden hurried to the Ball apartment. He found the door locked and kicked it in. On the floor he found Ball unconscious; he had slashed his throat in three places and then turned on the gas.

When Mrs. Ball recovered consciousness she said her husband had been acting strangely for several weeks. A week ago a physician warned her that he was suffering from paranoia and might develop a dangerous mood at any time.

The Made-Up Carpet Remnants Are Ready

This is an announcement that will interest a good many hundreds of housekeepers who watch for this semi-annual occasion at WANAMAKER'S. Preparatory to stock taking we have made up all the short lengths of carpets in our stock; and not only have the carpets been marked at about one-third less than if bought by the yard, but we have charged nothing for the making, which means a very great deal both in convenience and cost to the purchaser.

Naturally, there is great variety in coloring and design; and the made-up Carpets present such a wide range of sizes that practically any room can be fitted as nearly as the housekeeper desires.

It is necessary to bring your room measurements with you, so that you may select the right size.

These made-up Carpets are sold only with the understanding they are not returnable, as we must clean them out entirely while the people are here to buy them; and the prices are made only to clean out our stock effectually before inventory.

All of the Carpets are made with borders, and may be either tacked to the floor, or left loose like a rug.

It is out of the question to give any complete list of sizes and prices.
We, however, list a few, selected to show the general range of the sizes, and the reductions from the yard-prices of the carpets:

	Regular Price	Special Price
Axminster, 12 ft. 3 in. x 10 ft. 6 in.	$34.65	$21.00
